She had been sick a few days at her own home, and might probably have recovered, and she remained there. But she was auxious to try the experiment of bathing, and was carried in an ox cart, several miles to Hamakun. This bastened her end; and she was brought back only to be conveyed to the f house appointed for all the living." Kaulmahele and Malo made the coffinworking in the rain all day. While attending the faneral. I observed Kaulunabele sitting with the mourners, and at the close of the exercises, I had a short conversation with him, as I had not seen him since he left Makawao, where he had resided several years, being employed by John J. Gower Esq., who highly esteemed him has a faithful, industrious, and skillful laborer. The next day I saw Majo at Mr. Needtam's store. Both Kaulunahele and Malo seemed to be in health at the time, but a few days later, I heard, that the former was dead, and the so that two of the three brothers, in the prime of life active, and useful a few weeks since, are now numbered with the dead. Many others I presume, have died as suddenly as these; but I give you the history of this family; as I knew all the brothers, and I regard their death, as a public loss.

Fed.2d.—No American newspaper has been received here of jater date than the 11th of January, though letters are at hand to the 19th. There is considerable dissatisfaction at this state of things, and the people are anxious to know if it arises from the recent change in the manner and system of carrying American frans-ocean mail.

The Government commenced to make the much talked of changes, but so far the rumers about the expected reduction in the Army and Navy are unfounded. ounded.

The Patric expresses the opinion that the present silitary and naval forces of the country are not too large.

Files of American journals due here over a week ago were distributed to subscribers this morning.

The remerals and appointments have been of little importance.
License has been given for the performance of Victor Hugo's plays in this city.
A public meeting was dissolved by the authorities last night because one speaker compared Offivier to Judas Lecariot.

Paris, Feb. 2d.—In the Corpe Legislatif the proposition that the Presidents of the Chambers have a right to domaind an armed force when necessary to insure freedom of deliberations, was debated. Jules Fatro recalled the facilitat a similar demand was made in the Chamber ten days before the cosp of star of 1851, but was thou rejected after an exciting debate. M. Grevis' proposition was defeated—217 to 43.

Sumes, Yeb. 2d.—Dr. J. Dude, of this city, has been chassen President of the Swing Confederation.
